

Globalaw elects new President ahead of its 30th anniversary

Lisbon, Portugal: 1 November 2023 – Globalaw, an international network of independent law firms, that provides its members with a global platform to serve their clients' legal needs, is pleased to congratulate Peter J. Brown as its new President following Globalaw's Annual Members Meeting in Lisbon, Portugal on the 27th October 2023.

Peter J. Brown, Edwards, Kenny & Bray LLP, Vancouver, Canada, succeeds Oliver Foerster from Huth Dietrich Hahn, Germany, who successfully led the Globalaw network for the past two years and who the board of directors wishes to thank for his valuable contribution.

Commenting on his appointment, Peter J. Brown said: "I would like to thank Oliver for his dedication over the last two years during which the network had to navigate the challenges of the COVID-19 crisis. I am honoured and delighted now to be leading the network as it enters its 30th anniversary in 2024. With an established history of success, this anniversary represents an opportunity to professionalize the network even further and demonstrate our continued commitment as a leading independent global network for providing excellent and personalized legal services to our clients".

Following its well-attended Annual Members Meeting in Portugal, Globalaw plans to organize three events in 2024, to continue growing the relationships of the network and identifying business opportunities for and with its clients. The meetings and locations for these meetings are as follows:

- Globalaw EMEA Regional Meeting from 4-6 April in La Thuile, Italy
- Globalaw Americas Regional Meeting from 6-8 June in Vancouver, Canada
- Globalaw Annual Members Meeting from 25-28 September in Sao Paolo, Brazil

About Globalaw:

Created in 1994 and owned by its members, Globalaw Limited is a non-profit organization focused on providing legal services around the globe. The network is made up of recognized medium-sized law firms that deliver a full-service offering. Many are leading firms in their jurisdiction or practice areas. All member firms are recommended and carefully vetted before joining Globalaw. Globalaw has grown steadily since its inception, with a continued focus on quality and commitment. Most countries other than the largest jurisdictions such as the USA, China and India have only one member firm, so membership is exclusive, sought after and valued.
